

BYLAWS OF THE COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY AND AVIATION

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY POLYTECHNIC CAMPUS APPROVED NOVEMBER 2015

The purpose of these by-laws is to outline procedures specific to the governance of Kansas State University Polytechnic Campus, College of Technology and Aviation. These bylaws are to be construed in accordance with the Board of Regents (BOR) and Kansas State University (KSU) policies. Any inconsistencies are to be resolved in favor of the BOR or KSU policy, respectively.

ARTICLE I - Constituency

Unless otherwise specifically noted (for example tenure), the contents of these by-laws will be standard policy for the faculty and professional staff of the College of Technology and Aviation and Intercampus Academic Programs.

ARTICLE II - Officers

The Dean of the College of Technology and Aviation, hereinafter designated the Dean, shall serve as Chair and Presiding Officer of the College. The Administrative Assistant to the Dean shall serve as Secretary of this body. In the absence of the Dean, an alternate designated by the Dean shall assume the duties and responsibilities of the Chair. In the absence of the Dean or any alternate designated by the Dean, faculty and professional staff shall elect an alternate to serve in the capacity of Chair.

ARTICLE III - Rules of Order

Robert's Rules of Order, newly revised edition, shall govern all meetings of the faculty and professional staff in all cases where they are applicable or any rules subsequently adopted by majority vote of the faculty and professional staff for the conduct of its meetings.

ARTICLE IV - Meetings

Section 1. Calling of Meetings of the College: Meetings of the College may be called at the discretion of the Dean, or in his or her absence, by the alternate Chair, and/or the Leadership Committee upon written petition of a majority of Faculty Senators, or upon written petition of not less than one-fourth of the faculty and professional staff.

Section 2. Quorum: A Quorum shall consist of not less than one-half of the members of the faculty and professional staff.

Section 3. Proxy Votes: Proxy votes shall be permitted. Proxies for a meeting must be submitted in writing to the presiding officer prior to the call to order.

Section 4. Agenda: The Leadership Committee shall be responsible for and shall issue the agenda and any written documents to be voted on at least one week prior to the meeting. The agenda shall list all subjects, other than routine matters, to be discussed and/or voted on.

ARTICLE V - Budgetary Unit

Section 1. Constituency: Each Unit shall be constituted of faculty and/or professional staff having a regular appointment equal to or greater than half time assigned to that budgetary Unit.

Section 2. Initiation of Meetings of the Budgetary Unit: Meetings of each Unit may be called at the discretion of the Unit Administrator or in his/her absence, by a member of the constituent faculty or professional staff appointed by the Unit Administrator, or upon written petition of not less than one-fourth of the Unit members to the Unit Administrator. The Unit Administrator, or the appointed member of the constituent faculty or professional staff, shall be responsible for, and shall issue, the agenda at least one day prior to each meeting of the Unit. The agenda shall list all subjects, other than routine matters, to be discussed and/or voted on by the Unit.

ARTICLE VI - Amendments

Section 1. Amending Bylaws: These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of all the members of the faculty and professional staff and approval by the Dean. No amendment may be proposed or adopted which would conflict with any provision of the University Handbook. The full text of proposed amendments and ballots must have been distributed at least one week prior to a meeting of the faculty and professional staff, at which the proposed amendment will be open for discussion and/or modification. The vote to amend is to be by written ballot. No provision of this Article may be suspended.

ARTICLE VII - Effective Dates and Updating Procedures

Amendments to these Bylaws shall take effect immediately upon approval by the faculty and professional staff and upon written signature of the Dean in accordance with the procedures specified in Article VI of these Bylaws. It shall be the responsibility of the Leadership Committee to review these Bylaws within the six-month period following the release of each new edition of the University Handbook to assure compliance with changes in that document, as well as with Board of Regents policy manual and the Kansas State University policy and procedures manual.

ARTICLE VIII - Committees

The Dean, in consultation with members of the Leadership Committee, shall appoint committees as deemed necessary. A written mission or charge, eligibility, membership, selection, terms, meetings, roster, and reporting structure shall be developed and published upon creation of any committee. All committees shall elect a chair and secretary during the first meeting of the academic year. The chair shall be responsible for coordination of meetings and the secretary shall be responsible to maintain meeting minutes. Upon committee approval, the chair/secretary shall forward meeting minutes to the Dean’s office. Minutes of meetings, results, and reports of the committee shall be placed on file in the Dean’s office and made available to the Campus Community by the Dean’s Administrative Assistant. Specific committees as required by the University Handbook shall be maintained in accord with the provisions of Article VIII, Part I, Section II.

PART I: COLLEGE LEADERSHIP

Section I. Leadership Committee

- Charge: The committee shall respond to, and delegate to, standing committees any campus related matters identified in their charge.

The committee shall serve as a cooperative group forum for communication, discussion, and to make recommendations to Administration and to the faculty and professional staff for the good of the college. The Leadership Committee shall call general campus meetings, serve as a communication conduit between individual units, faculty senate, campus shared governance committees, and campus standing committees for issues and topics of concern at the unit, College, University, or State levels. Review committee membership, structure, charge, actions, and any recommendations, which impact Kansas State University Polytechnic Campus, prior to implementation or submission to the next level for action.

At the end of each academic year, sits as a committee on committees to assist in securing appointments and holds authority to adjust appointment terms as needed. For college level committees, the Leadership Committee shall coordinate elections and receive required committee appointees completed by third week of May each year.
- Membership: Committee membership shall be composed of campus administration, the chair of each shared governance committee, Faculty Senators, the Student Government Association President (or delegate), and the University Support Staff senator.
- Terms: Members shall serve terms according to their elected / appointed committee position.
- Meetings: The committee shall meet on a regularly scheduled basis at least once per month during the fall and spring semesters. Additional meetings may be called by the chairperson as the need arises. Committee meetings may also be called by the Dean or at the request of any three committee members.

Section II. All Kansas State University Polytechnic Campus Committees

- Charge: Respond to charges presented by the Dean or the Leadership Committee and address other matters that may fall within the mission of the committee. All committees under Part II and Part III serve in advisory capacity to the Leadership Committee, unless otherwise stated in committee charge.
- Membership: Shall be defined specific to each committee. Committees may appoint additional ex-officio members to serve for counsel and serve as deemed necessary.
- Selection: Nominations shall be sought each year for vacancies in each committee held during the month of April. The faculty and professional staff body, at large, will be solicited for nominations by secret electronic ballot for all elected vacancies as defined by committee membership. Faculty and professional staff are allowed to self-nominate for any position.

The Leadership Committee shall ascertain the willingness to serve of those nominated. As defined by each committees' membership, elections at large via electronic ballot and appointments by the Leadership Committee shall occur by the third week of May. The Leadership Committee will take into consideration the nominations and appoint new committee members into vacant appointment positions. The Leadership Committee will be responsible to ensure that their committee appointees will result in an academically diverse representative group of faculty and professional staff.

A complete summary of the election shall be kept by the administrative assistant of the Dean's office in official files for at least three years.

As a vacancy occurs in any committee for an elected position(s), Leadership Committee shall appoint to the next in rank to be elected in the previous year to complete the remainder of the original term. The Leadership Committee should go back no further than the previous year to find replacements for vacancies. When the names on the nominated/elected of the previous year are exhausted, then the Leadership Committee will make special appointment at the time of the vacancy to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the appointment.

- Terms: Members will serve three-year terms that begin on July 1 for no more than two consecutive full-length terms. To provide continuity, terms will be staggered. Mid-term vacancies will be filled through election or Leadership Committee appointment to complete the remainder of the original term. Special committees of task forces may have other defined terms.
- Reports to: Dean, Leadership Committee and/or other identified entity within the Campus Community
- Continuance: The Chair of each committee shall be responsible for coordinating meetings and maintaining minutes of each meeting. Minutes will be filed with the Dean's office.

Section III. Other Shared Governance and College Standing Committees

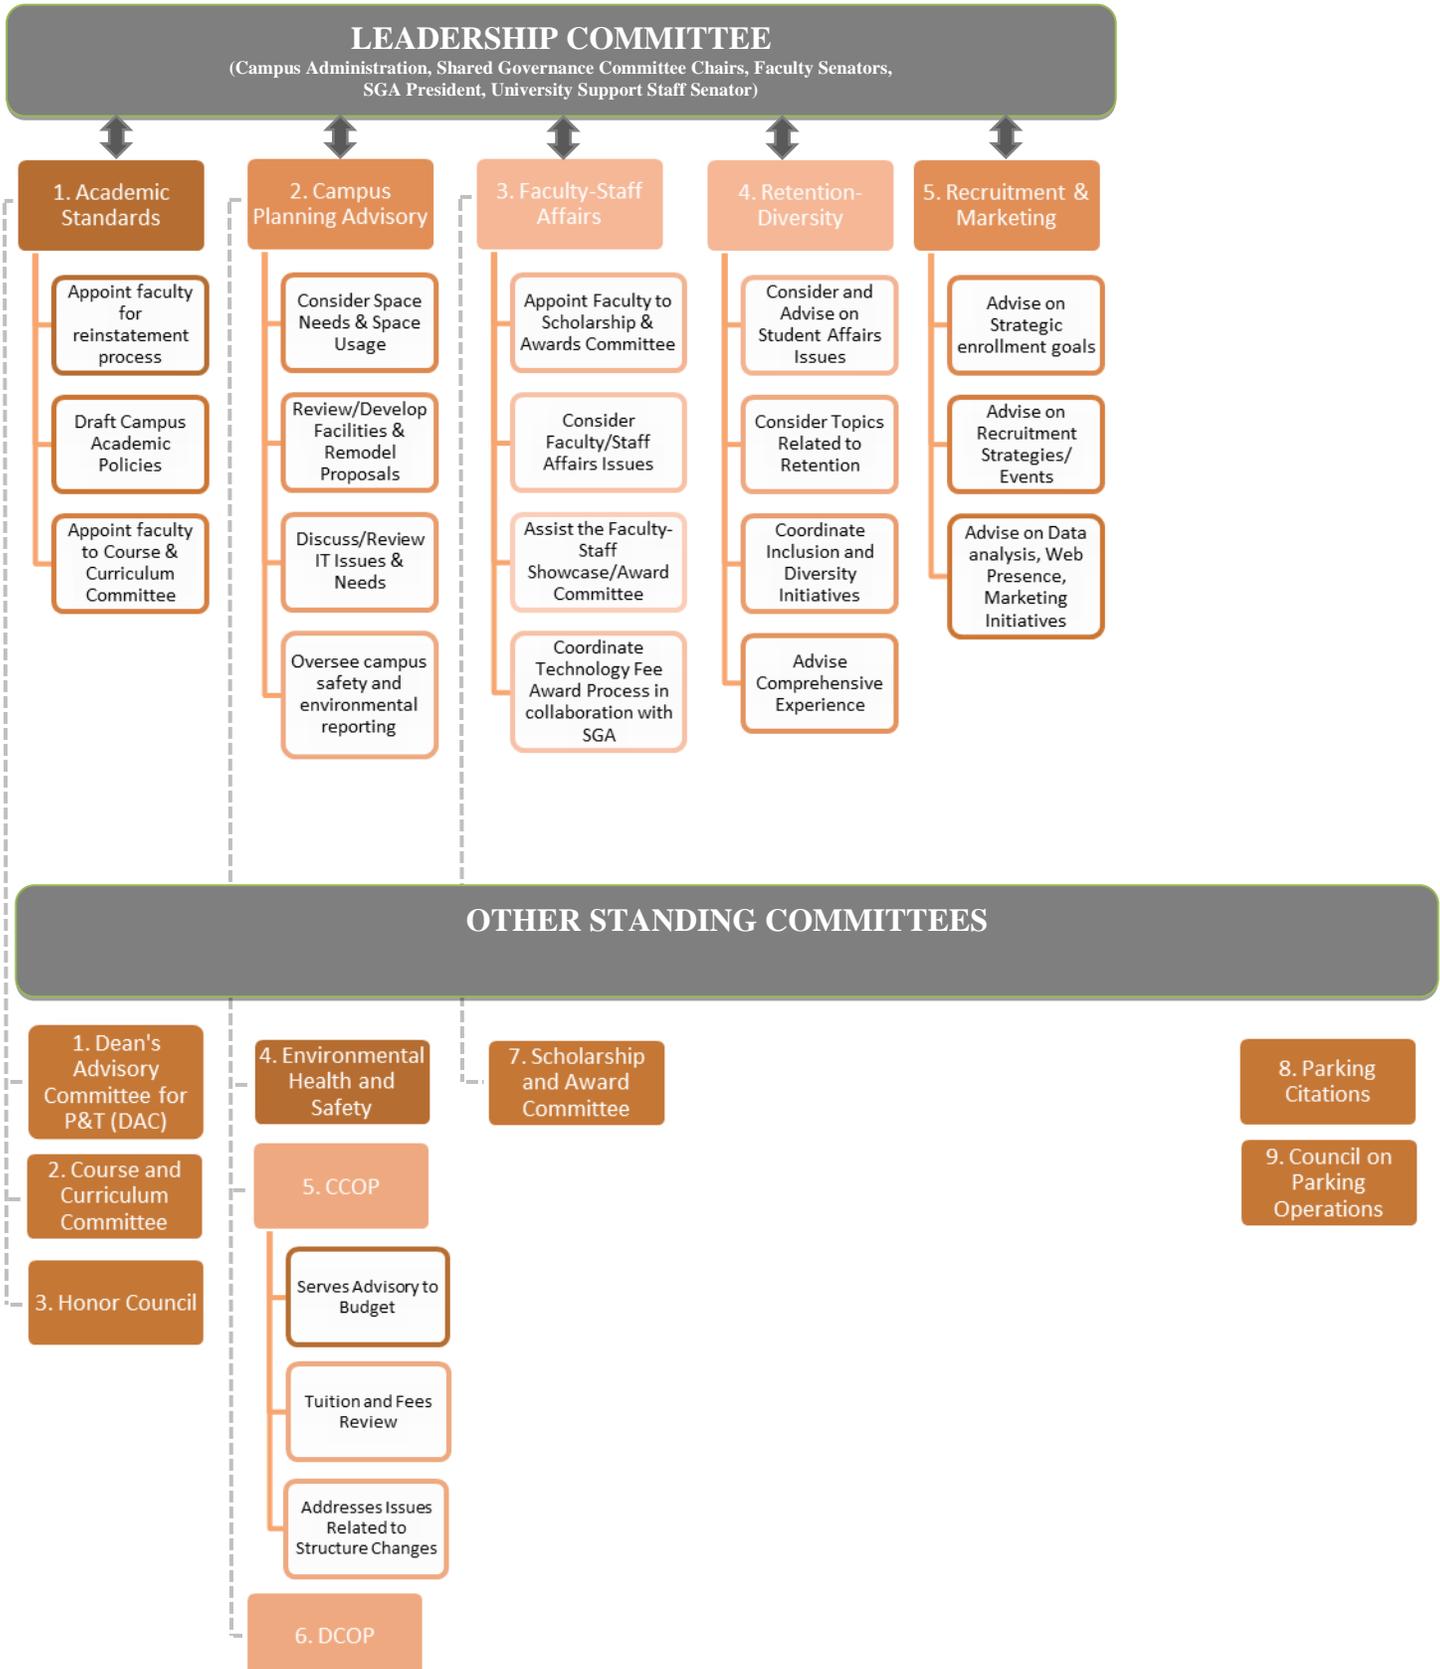

All Kansas State University Polytechnic Campus committees other than those specifically identified in Part I, Section I, of this document may be constituted or otherwise formed as needed to meet the expectations of the University Handbook or the operational needs of Kansas State University Polytechnic Campus without revision of these by-laws. Committees are expected to follow the provisions of Article VIII.
